from bangs to bobs, the best celebrity hair

The Bob

Cameron Diaz turned heads when she arrived at the Oscars' with a wispy, chin-length bob. America took notice too, awarding it the third most-requested cut. Diaz's longtime stylist, Lona Vigi, "kept the length shorter in the back, leaving the bangs and sides longer for a sexier feel," she says. To style, section off hair and blow-dry with a round brush "to give body." The cut's functionality makes it hot in the City of Brotherly Love. "Philly's a walking city—women need a cut that won't lose its shape in the wind and humidity," says Giovanni Mele, owner of Giovanni & Pileggi salon.
