

PHILADELPHIA WEEKLY STYLE IN PURSUIT OF THE AWESOME

- events
- shopping
- nightlife
- culture
- food & drink
- music
- fashion

Local Valentine's Gift Guide

Now that you know what Philly's Ten Most Romantic Meals are, it's time to start worrying about your Valentine's gift. Here's eight local shops and businesses definitely worth hitting up:

FOR YOUR FELLA ...

Duke & Winston

If your beau isn't afraid to rock a little pink, right now Duke & Winston is taking 20 percent off their entire selection of refined, yet appropriately festive pink and red menswear, both in store and online (promo-code: ILUVDUKE). For the more dapper of dudes, consider one of the brand's gentleman polo ($65) and signature logo tie, in your choice of burgundy or pink ($68). For the more laidback dresser, there's always their signature red hat ($22) and pink "Long Live Duke" tee ($32). (633 N. Second St.)

Adorn Boutique

Rather than going to a department store and picking out some cheap, generic piece of jewelry, your gal is much more likely to appreciate a one-of-a-kind, handmade adornment. Though any of owner/designer, Sarah Lewis' creations will do, you should definitely consider Adorn's new Love Potion Necklace ($38), a tiny faceted, heart-shaped glass vial which holds a few drops of essential oil—your choice of lavender, rose, or jasmine. As an additional incentive, if you stop by the boutique any day before V-Day, you'll save 10 percent. Meanwhile, if you shop online before Feb. 12, you can save 20 percent with the discount code: LOVE. (1314 Frankford Ave.)

Giovanni & Pileggi

The gift of pampering never goes out of style, and nor will your lady's mane should you give her a gift card to Philly's award-winning, cutting-edge salon. Their services start at just $25 dollars and range from blowouts and restorative treatments to makeup application and brow shaping. (258 S. 11th St.)

search

recent posts

- Aoki Boutique Has All Your Last Minute V-Day Needs
- Pissed Jeans' Fourth, Honeys, Is Out Today
- The Weeds Debut Video for "The Dead"
- 2013 Grammy Awards: Best & Worst Dressed
- Bleeding Rainbow's Yeah Right Is Pretty Awesome And They're Playing In Philly On Valentine's Day
- 12 Unique Local Valentine's Day Events
- Lady Gaga's Born This Way Ball And Her Born Brave Bus Tour Stop In Philadelphia In 11 Days
- Saturday Is Tittie City's Three Year Anniversary
- Motionhouse's Scattered: British Contemporary Dance At The Annenberg Center This Weekend
- Local Valentine's Gift Guide

March 9, 2013
8 PM TO MIDNIGHT
PLEASE TOUCH MUSEUM
MEMORIAL HALL, FAIRMOUNT PARK
FOR TICKETS & MORE INFORMATION, VISIT:
WWW.THEREDBALL.ORG