Here's how you can score a haircut from an upscale salon at a reduced rate: On Sunday, April 14, Washington Square West's Giovanni & Pileggi will host Cuts for a Cause, a one-day-only fundraising event that will donate 50% of its proceeds to tissue and organ donation awareness.

Here's the deal: Choose from 1) Haircut and blowout for $40; 2) haircut, single process color, and blowout for $80; or 3) haircut, highlights, and blowout for $100. These prices reflect a sizable discount from Giovanni & Pileggi's standard rates, so don't delay calling the salon to reserve your spot.

Not quite sure what look you're going for? Salon owner Giovanni Mele tells us the most-requested color this season has been blonde highlights, and more and more clients have been requesting shorter cuts and bangs.
